Hyperion Presents “Partner Of The Year” Award To Archstone Consulting

Stamford, CT, February 22, 2007 – Archstone Consulting, a leading strategy, operations and CFO advisory management consulting firm, has received the “Partner of the Year” award from Hyperion. Netherlands-based Hyperion, a market leader in Business Performance Management Software, annually names a partner that has successfully performed and collaborated with Hyperion and has a relationship that is built on respect, trust, open communication and professionalism.

Since 2004, Hyperion and Archstone Consulting have worked together on a number of projects designed to help clients understand how business decisions affect financial results. Through Archstone Consulting’s CFO Advisory Practice, clients gain the framework to improve various financial services, including strategy, financial consolidation, financial reporting and business planning, among others.

“We are extremely proud of the recognition by the Hyperion organization and their clients”, said Tom Velema, Principal and Benelux Practice Leader of Archstone Consulting. “We are truly making a difference in the Dutch marketplace and have already built up a strong track record of successful global Hyperion solution implementations at clients such as Sara Lee International, Campina, Atradius and Lucas Bols. We look forward to building upon this success and continuing to serve our clients.”

“This award is an important milestone for our fast growing CFO Advisory practice,” commented Sanjay Sehgal, Principal and Hyperion Practice Leader. “It further establishes us as a strong player in the Business Intelligence marketplace and demonstrates our commitment to working collaboratively with Hyperion Solutions on delivering value to our clients.”

Marco van der Kooij, a Director at Archstone Consulting, received the award as an acknowledgment for all the contributions made by each individual at both Hyperion and Archstone Consulting who made the partnership successful.
